warm and sunny

On a Saturday afternoon, my mum and brothers went on a trip to Tsuen Wan. We took a train there. It took a long time though, but it was still a great ride. I was tired so I slept on the train. I was kind of uncomfortable though.

When we arrived, I felt tired but felt excited at the same time. First, we went to my grandpa's home. When I saw it, it kind of gave me memories because it was my third time going there. My grandpa gave me some fruit, it was yummy.

Later, we went to a big shopping mall. The people there were selling some food, so we bought some. Next, we went to a toyshop to buy some toys and ate lunch at a restaurant. Then, we went home.
