

A Missing Necklace

5B (10) Lau Hei Nam, Hilary

Ben and Betty were playing at the park in the afternoon last week. When they wanted to rest, Betty shouted, 'OH NO! I lost my necklace!' She felt nervous. Ben said, 'Betty, so let's go to the park office together and ask if someone picked it up!'

After that, they went to the park office, they asked the park officer with curly hair, in a uniform, 'Excuse me sir, I lost my necklace. Is there anyone who found a silver necklace?' The officer answered, 'Sorry. No, I do not see anyone giving me a silver necklace.' Betty and Ben felt disappointed. Ben said, 'Let's go to the park and find again.'

Then, Betty and Ben went to find the necklace at the park. Suddenly, Ben saw a woman holding a necklace. Ben asked Betty, 'Is that your necklace?' Betty answered, 'No, it is a gold necklace, mine is a silver necklace. Let's go home. Maybe we will find the necklace tomorrow.'

At the end, Betty shouted, 'Oh, I find my necklace, I did not bring it out.' Ben said, 'Ha! Ha! You are so silly!' They felt joyful again!
