

A Missing Necklace

5B (8) Fu Jiyi, Jacky

Last Sunday, Ben and Betty were at the park in the morning. She was too excited to play with Ben and her necklace was gone. She felt nervous and worried.

Later, they went to the park office and there was an officer in a uniform and with curly hair. Betty said to the officer, 'Do you see a heart-shaped necklace?' The officer was confused and said, 'We do not find any necklace.' They went back to the park and find again.

Suddenly, Ben saw a woman in a spotted dress was holding something. It seemed like she was nervous. Betty went ahead and asked if the woman has seen any necklace. The woman said, 'No.'

Last, Ben was tired and wanted to drink some water. When he opened his backpack, he shouted, 'Oh your necklace is here! Remember you put things in the wrong backpack yesterday?' Betty said, 'Silly me.'
