

The Missing Necklace

5C (8) Khan Dania

Last week, Ben and Betty walking home. Suddenly, Betty found that her necklace was missing! She felt sad. She wanted to find her necklace.

Then, Ben and Betty went to the park office. There was a tall man with curly hair. Betty said "Have you seen my necklace?". The tall man said "No, I have not seen your necklace."

After that, they went back to the park and they saw a woman with a spotted dress. Betty said "Have you seen my necklace?". Woman in a spotted dress said "I... I have not seen your n... necklace." Betty felt suspicious because she was nervous and her hands were shaking. Betty saw something in the woman's hand, it was a silver heart. Next, Betty found her necklace and the woman tried to run but she could not run because she was too weak to run.

Betty and Ben called the police. The police came and took her with them. Finally, the woman was sent to court and she was guilty. Betty felt happy because she found her necklace and the woman went to jail!
