

The Missing Necklace

Last week, Ben and Betty were time to go back. Suddenly, Betty found that her silver necklace was missing! She felt worried because her grandma gave it to her before she died. She wanted to find the silver necklace.

Then, they went to Park Office and asked the thin man with straight hair, "Have you seen a silver necklace"? The man answered, "No, I have not"! After that, they went to the park to find the necklace. Ben saw a woman in spotted dress holding a sweet on her hand. Next, they walked forward and asked the woman, "Have you seen a silver necklace"? The woman answered, "No, I have not seen the necklace". Betty told the woman to tell us if she saw the necklace. Suddenly, the woman shouted she found the necklace on the grass. Ben and Betty rushed to the woman and said thank you.

Finally, they walked back home. Betty felt glad that she found back the necklace.
