

The Missing Necklace

Last week, Ben and Betty were at the park. Suddenly, Betty found that her necklace was missing! She felt upset. She wanted to find her necklace.

Then, they went to the park office. Betty said to officer, “Did anyone see my necklace”? But he said ‘No one sees your necklace’. She felt disappointed. They kept on looking for it.

After that, they went to the park. Suddenly Ben saw the woman in a spotted dress and she was holding something. They thought she had taken Betty necklace. He went to woman said, “Have you taken my friend’s necklace”? The woman opened her hand and said to Ben, “No, I have not taken your friend’s necklace. I am holding a coin’.

Finally, Betty found her necklace on the grass. She told Ben, “Ben, I have found my necklace. It’s on the grass.” Then, they went back home with Joy!
