Sunday, 27th April

sunny

In the morning, I went to have breakfast. I ate a bowl of noodles, bread and cheese. It was yummy.

In the afternoon, My dad made a surprise for Mum, my little brothers and me. We did not know what it was. My Dad took us to a cinema. Then, I knew we were going to watch a movie. So, we sat down and waited for the movie. After that, we realized that it was 'A Minecraft Movie'. When the movie was finished, we ate some Japanese food. The food was great.

At the end, we were tired. Today was a very fun day.
