COCO IS MISSING

My cat Coco went missing in Ocean Park on Saturday morning.

Coco is eight years old. She is orange and white. She has big eyes and a fluffy tail. She is kind. She never bites anyone unless she is in pain. Coco is cheerful. She is lazy too. She never leaves my bed when she is at home. She is 18 kg. She is heavy. She eats a lot of food. She is also neat. She only sleeps on clean beds.

I feel so worried. I can't lose her because she is the only friend I have to play with at home. If you see her, please call 5863 3609.
