

An Accident

Class: P. 4A

Name: Shao Yu Hei, YoYo (13)

I seldom go cycling because I am not good at it. Last Saturday, Jamie and I went cycling in Tung Chung.

There was a tree on the cycle lane. I fell on the ground because there was a stone in front of me. I hit the stone and fell down. I hurt my face and knee. I could not ride my bike anymore and I could not walk.

I was sad and cried. Jamie saw what happened. He was worried and took me to the hospital. I should wear knee pads and a helmet next time.
