

A Day at Funland

Written and illustrated by Lee Sze Wai, Celine (9) Class: 4B

Last weekend, Celine with a squirrel got off the Fun Bus at Funland.

First, Celine met a chef with a fox at the entrance. The chef said, "Hi, dear! I'm a chef, so I'm looking for tasty food. Have you tried the giant popcorn here? It smells amazing!" Celine said, "I have not tried it yet, but it smells like butter! Do you cook popcorn at your restaurant?" The chef said, "I usually cook fancy dinners, but I think popcorn is the best snack for a fun day!"

Next, Celine saw a magician with a panda at the Ferris wheel. The magician said, "Watch closely! I have a shiny gold coin in my hand. One, two, three and it's gone!" Celine said, "Whoa! How did you do that? Is it hidden in your sleeve?" The magician said, "A magician never tells his secrets. If you clap your hands, I might make it again."

Last, Celine met an artist with a sheep at the food court. The artist said, "Hold it for a second! Your smile is perfect for the drawing." Celine said, "Of course! A blue balloon adds a lovely colour. All finished! What do you think? I was over the moon because I had so much fun. I had a wonderful day."
