

A Day at Funland

Written and illustrated by Ho Lok Ching, Bianca (5) Class: 4B

Last Friday, Celine with a squirrel got off the Fun Bus at Funland.

First, Bianca met a clown with a rabbit at the entrance. The clown did a magic show in front of her, “Is it cool? Where’s the rabbit?” said the clown. “Wow! So cool!” said Bianca. Then the clown brought back a rabbit.

Next, Bianca met a fairy with a cat at the food court. The fairy sang a song in front of her. “That was the song of the Moonflower. It tells the story of how this cat found her sparkle,” said the fairy. Then the fairy sang with Bianca happily.

Then, Bianca met Superman with a dog at the Panda Village. The superman showed his power in front of her. “Hi, Bianca! This is my dog, Spot. He helps me save the world!” said Superman. “Wow! You have superpower!” said Bianca. Then Superman brought its dog home.

After a long day, Bianca took the Fun Bus and went home. She was jolly but sleepy. She had a great day at Funland!
