

An Accident

By 4B 7 Choi Kwun Yin, Ernest

I seldom go cycling because I am not good at it. Last Sunday, my cousin Jamie and I went cycling in West Kowloon Park.

There was a slope on the cycle lane. I tripped over a rock. I hurt my knee. I shouted, ‘Oh no!’ I felt scared because my knee was bleeding.

Finally, the ambulance came. I went to the hospital with Jamie. The doctor said, ‘You need to stay in the hospital for one week.’ I felt very upset because I needed to stay in the hospital.
