Missing Pet

My rabbit Scorbunny went missing in Ocean Park yesterday morning.

He is three years old. He is red and white. He has a big head and a fat body. His long ears are flexible. It is fluffy. He is cheerful. He likes playing with fire. When he was sad, he has no smile on his face. When he was angry, he sometimes fights with each other. He likes fire. I am sad because I lost him in Ocean Park.

I miss Scorbunny very much because he is my only pet. If you see him, please call 11992235.
