

An accident

4D 23 Tsoi King Ho, Karson

I seldom go cycling because I am not good at it.
Last Friday, I went cycling with Jamie in Kowloon Park.

There was a rock on the ground. I was not paying attention on the ground, so I fell on the ground. I hurt my face and knee. They were bleeding.

I was very upset. Jamie saw what happened. He called my mum to help and made fun of me. I should be more careful next time.
