

A Day at LBC Park

Last weekend, Eagle and a tiger got off the taxi at LBC Park.

First, Eagle met a thief with a dragon at the food stall. He was surprised and asked the thief, “Can I touch the dragon?” The thief let him touch it, and Eagle was excited.

Then, Eagle met Spiderman with balloons at the playground. He sang and danced. Eagle shouted to Spiderman, “Can I have a balloon?” Spiderman gave him one, and he was amazed.

Next, Eagle met a snowman next to the roller coaster. The snowman told him a joke. Eagle laughed, and they shared beautiful balloons. They were happy.

After a long day, Eagle took the helicopter and went home because he was hungry and tired.
