

A personal recount about an accident

4E Ching Ka Yau, Cheryl

I seldom go cycling because I am not good at it. Yesterday, Jamie and I went cycling in a park.

There was a slope on the cycle lane. I didn't see it and fell on the ground. I hurt my knees. It was bleeding.

I was very upset. Jamie saw what happened. He called for help and looked after me. "Thank you, Jamie." I said, "I am glad that I can help." said Jamie.
