

A personal recount about an accident

4E Choi Cheuk Yin, Sharine

I seldom went cycling because I am not good at it. Yesterday, Jamie and I went cycling in Hong Kong Park.

There was a slope on the cycle lane. I went too fast and hit another bicycle. My knee hurt.

I was upset. Jamie saw what happened. He called for help in the end. I went to a clinic. "Are you ok?" said Jamie, "I am ok, thank you!" I said. My mum came and we went home together.
