Dear David,

Thank you for your letter. There are many attractions you can visit in Hong Kong. You can join a 3-day local tour in Hong Kong. Here is my suggestion:

During the tour, you will visit Skyline 100 in the afternoon on 23rd December. It is in Austin. You can go there by MTR. It takes about fifty minutes. You can enjoy delicious meals. You can try the high-speed elevator too. The high-speed elevator only takes about one minute. You can see panoramic view of Hong Kong. You can see the dazzling night scene of Hong Kong City. You will feel surprised because it is so high. You will feel happy too because there is yummy food.

Second, you will visit Nanlianyuan Pond in the morning on 24th December. It is in Wong Tai Sin. You can go there by bus. It takes about fifty-four minutes. You can visit the garden architecture imitating the Tang Dynasty style. You can stroll through the park and admire the unique rocks, ancient trees and lotus pods and other gardens. You can see a lot of flowers too. You will feel relaxed because the garden provides a quiet environment for relaxation. You will feel peaceful because you can get away from the hustle and bustle here.

Third, you will visit Big Pavilion in the morning on 25th December. It is in Central. You can go there by MTR and bus. It takes about one hour and six minutes. You can take photos at different check-in points. You can enjoy art exhibitions and performing arts and sample a variety of unique restaurants too. You can see revitalized historical buildings. You can also spend some leisure time in specialty shop, galleries and restaurants. You will feel glad. You will feel surprised too because there is a blend of old and new, and a blend of Chinese and Western style.

I am looking forward to seeing you in Hong Kong!

Love,
Ashley
