

My Bad Day

Last Thursday, I stayed up very late at night. I was watching my favourite show on TV while eating chips. At 1 a.m., I felt sleepy, so I went to bed.

The next day, I woke up with a sore throat. I was worried because I had an oral exam which was important and the exam was in the first lesson. I drank many bottles of water, hoping to get better before the exam.

During the lesson, unluckily, I was the first one to take the exam. I tried to speak but couldn't make any sound. I was nervous. My teacher asked me if I was alright, and I answered that I wasn't. She said, 'If you don't feel well today, let's have the oral exam next Monday.' I was relieved and thankful after hearing this.

After school, I went home and stayed in bed. I took medicine and ate vegetables. I felt better after that, so I went to practise for the oral exam. The Monday after, I had the oral exam. Due to my practice, I performed very well and got an A in the exam. I was delighted!
