

My Bad Day

By 6C Tsui Hoi Tung, Kayley (21)

Last Thursday night, I ate a lot of potato chips and watched TV. I slept at 1:00 a.m. because the TV programme was interesting.

When I woke up, I had a sore throat. I couldn't talk. I felt uncomfortable because I had a sore throat.

Although I felt unwell, I still went to school. Later, I would go to see the doctor. The teacher said, 'You should go to see the doctor.'

Finally, I went home and took some rest. Then, I went to see the doctor.
should not eat too many potato chips.
