

A Bad Day

By 6D Lee Ka Hei, Steve (12)

Last Thursday, I watched TV and stayed up late. I ate snacks like, chips, chocolate, popcorn and drank soda. I slept at 2 o'clock because my favourite cartoon was on TV for the first time.

The next day, I had a sore throat. I felt unwell and dizzy at school. During English lesson, we had an oral examination. I couldn't speak because I had a sore throat. My teacher was shocked that I couldn't speak even if I tried.

She asked me, 'Are you okay? Do you need to take a rest?' I could not say a word to reply. Finally, the teachers said, 'I'll give you some time, you will retake the exam tomorrow.'

In the end I retook the exam and I said to myself, 'I will never stay up late even with my favourite TV show on.'
