

A Bad Day

By 6D Ng Chin Yu, Cheryl (19)

Last Thursday, I watched TV and stayed up late. I ate a lot of chips and slept at one o'clock because I did not pay attention to the time.

The next day, I got a sore throat and a cold because I ate a lot of chips and forgot to close my windows the night before. I felt unwell.

In school, I felt scared because today was the oral examination. My teacher asked, 'What happened?' I said, 'I have a sore throat and I cannot speak.'

The teacher called my parents and told them to pick me up from school. My parents scolded me and I will not sleep late again.
