

My Bad Day

Last Friday, I stayed up late because I ate a lot of chips and watched TV. I felt very tired.

The next day, I woke up and I got a sore throat, but I needed to go to school because I had an oral examination.

Suddenly something happened! I could not speak in my oral examination. I felt so tired.

In the end, my English teacher said to me, 'If you have a sore throat, you can have the oral examination the next day. I hope you will get better soon.' After that, I think I will never stay up late, eat too many chips while watching TV.
